

INDEPENDENCE DAY 2018

Thousands laid down their lives so that our country could celebrate this day. The whole Bhartiya family saluted the nation with freedom in the mind, faith in the words, pride in the souls after all it was the august occasion of the 72nd Independence day of our country.

The Tribute to our nation was given out with a flowerful flag hoisting in front of the erudite souls of Bhartiya International School Mr. Bharat Goel and Mr. Gurjeet Singh Kamra, the directors of this esteemed institution, Mr. Rajesh Sharma, the Principal, and Mrs. Rashmi Anand, the head mistress, Mr. Ashok Mishra, the academic coordinator including all the worthy teachers, students and organization panel and then the august occasion was gifted with a melodious 52 seconds of the freedom lyrics. The pride and the feeling of patriotism defined the gold like purity they had for their tri-colored nation, India.

The whole celebration changed into melodies and cool hearted tune which was freshened by a wonderful 'Abhivyakti Slogan' in which the tiny tots of Sapling 1 to Sapling 3 delivered some of the most famous dialogues of the freedom fighters. Then it molded into the heart touching vocal presentation 'Ae Mere Watan Abaad Rahe Tu' by the students of class 3rd and 4th. Afterwards was the inter-house choir singing competition by four of the houses. Astor Arya came forward with a fabulous song 'Ae desh ke Jawaan' and enthused the whole vicinity with a great pride. Carmine Vincian and Columbian Adventurers expressed their utterly high love for the nation through the songs 'Ho Jao Taiyaar Sathiyon' and 'Hum Sathi Hain Hum Raahi' respectively. Lastly Mighty Marx exhibited its Patriotic sensation through 'Aao Milkar Gaayen Is Desh Ka Taraana'. Then was another zealous Inter House Dance Competition by Bhartiya's gemstones with all the bearing of 'Bhangra' showed our diverse country in a musical manner and left an indelible impact in the minds of the watchers.

This decorous summary was overviewed by the soul from where the emergence of BIS occurred Mr. Bharat Goyal, who showered his blessings on his Bhartiya family and expressed his gratitude towards all the worthy souls of this esteemed institution.
