Field trips play a vital role in student's life. They give them hands on experience and make the learning fun. Bhartiyam international school organizes such trips for the students to provide them experience outside their day to day activity. This time the school took the students to movie theatre to watch an inspirational movie "Soorma" Based on a sports person named "Sandeep Singh" Who is a famous hockey player. His immense success was a real motivation for them in sports. Through such inspiring stories they appreciate the struggle one has to go through in achieving something great in their life. After watching the motivational movie the students were filled with lot of enthusiasm. Over all it was a day of joy and happiness for them after dealing the stressful week of examination. They were filled with joy.
