Summer Vacations are just around the corner, and we know how excited the kids must be. And why not, the vacations, after all, are the most awaited part of the year for the students. It gives them a break from the monotonous daily routine to school and gives them the opportunity to try new and interesting things that they didn't get time for.

However, summer vacations can be considered spent well only if kids are able to strike a balance between enjoyment and learning. Summer vacations must not be considered as a break from learning. Actually, that's what the essence of the vacation is, learning disguised as fun and enjoyment.

Some tips to make this summer different:-

- An ideal time to polish up some hobby that gets neglected during school days.
- Visit any good bookshop of the city and select books of your level. Read them well.
- Books are your best friends.
- Go for walk with the family.
- Do some physical exercise like cycling, play badminton, cricket.
- Spend qualitative time with your grandparents and listen about their childhood from them.
- Read news paper daily.

Do's

- Wake up early and develop a morning routine. Do yoga, meditation or just a brisk walk.
- Start learning a new skill like painting, dance, music or public speaking.
- Play games, sports and do a lot of physical activity, but only during the morning and evening hours.
- Read more. Challenge yourself to finish reading at least a couple of good books during the vacation.
- Visit your cousins, or plan a trip with family.
- Help out your parents in family chores, and learn some useful skills that way.
- Make sure to be consistent with the holidays' homework. Avoid completing it for the last day!
- Eat good food, drink plenty of water, and have lots of fun!

Don'ts

- Do not waste all your time to play video games and/or mobile games.
- Don't go out during the hours of peak sunshine. Try some interesting indoor activities.
- Do not oversleep, and do not let laziness take you over. Stay active during the vacations.

Out of difficulties grow miracles. Tough time doesn't last.

Dear Students

The beginning of new session might not have been with pomp and show, but the spirit of teaching learning continues in the school. The summer vacations this time would not be ice creams, candies and cool pool, but time can be utilized in honing skills and interests.

It is easy to bloom, then to be a bud, but you are responsible young members of the nation and its our duty to follow rules. Here are some holiday activities designed for creative utilization of time. Give a flight to your imagination and spend time purposely.

Some points to be remember

- ❖ Drink plenty of juice and water to avoid dehydration.
- ❖ Make hand washing and hygiene a part of your routine.
- Holiday Homework is a part of subject enrichment and will beassessed on the basis of creativity and efforts of the students.
- ❖ It's the perfect time to enhance your speaking skills and vocabularyby conversing in English with your family and siblings.
- Reading is essential for those who seek to rise above the ordinary. Spend your quality time reading purposeful books.
- Schedule your time for activities so that there is no piling up for thelast moment.
- ❖ Holiday homework should be your authentic creative work.

SOCIAL STUDIES

1. Comprehension Skills

Read the passage and answer the question that follows:

The Article 15 in Indian Constitution guarantees equality to all the citizens of the country. The article also says that no individual should be discriminated on the basis of race, caste, religion, place of birth or gender. The Indian Constitution also abolishes untouchability, ensuring that every person gets equal access to every public place.

The Indian constitution also gives all the adults the right to vote irrespective of their education, caste, wealth and religion. This is known as the universal adult franchise. The government in order to implement equality in the country, implements laws and schemes or programmes to improve the lives of people.

Though the Indian Constitution guarantees equality to all the Indians, religion, economic background gender and caste play an important role in the society. However, India is not the only country struggling for equality. In spite of the government implementing various measures to bring equality, several communities are still struggling for their dignity.

Equality can only be achieved when one changes his attitude and starts treating every individual with respect and dignity.

- i. What is equality according to you?
- ii. What steps will you take to ensure equality in your home?
- iii. What measures can be taken to ensure that there is equality in the society?

2. Data research and maintenance

Collect the information of the programs initiated by the government to ensure the Equality in India.

For eg: Gender equality, economic equality etc.
